

Subjective Color Research Assignment – Inspiration Board

Assignment: Using a Photoshop Document, you will choose a color and research its symbolic, emotional, physiological, and cultural significance. Brainstorm for your Color Project and create an inspiration board.

Photoshop:

8x10"

150 ppi

Items to include:

- 1) Choose a color and research its symbolic, emotional, physiological, and cultural significance. Include paraphrased written research, image examples (at least 3), In your own words. You may not copy and paste from the web.
- 2) Decide on a narrative that you will visually illustrate. This may be a story, fairytale, proverb, idiom, song lyrics , or a quote to illustrate using subjective color. Include it here and explain how it inspires you.
- 3) Include “Inspiration Images.” Find images of artworks, photographs, textures, brushes, patterns, etc. Anything that will inspire and contribute to the theme of your Narrative Color Project. Minimum of 8 images.
- 4) Include a written statement of your idea for your Narrative Color Project. Make sure to explain how you will illustrate the narrative visually. What emotions, themes, moods, and ideas will your artwork and use of color convey? Minimum of 2 sentences.